Hi Raymond,
 I just wanted to tell you the invitations were recieved safely and we love them, we sent them out to guests at the end of last week and have had so many compliments. Thank you for your help.
 Kind Regards,
 Rebekah

we understand that thier is a quality difference between the logo and the writing. We are happy to proceed with the invitation as per the last sample you have sent us as long as you believe that the difference passes your quality standards.

Will wait for the details to forward payment. What would be the soonest we could have these dont by ?? We are not already almost a week behind scheduele (not your falt)

Kind Regards,
 Rebekah
